

NORDIC FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

11–12 May 2022

The game through many lenses.

The University of Jyväskylä and the Football Association of Finland are pleased to invite you to the 1st Nordic Football Conference. The event takes place on 11–12 May 2022 in Jyväskylä, Finland.

This two-day international conference offers sessions that focus on key themes in football from different perspectives, and creates opportunities to share best practices and forge alliances across the various segments of the game. The Nordic Football Conference brings together researchers, practitioners, students, the media, and other stakeholders around football.

The three key themes of the conference are (1) Coaching and player development, (2) Contemporary issues in football culture, and (3) The global football system. In addition, two overarching themes, (a) Sustainability and (b) Evidence-based practices run concurrently to form the backbone of the event.

The deadline for abstract submission is 31st January and the registration for the event starts on 1st February.
